

Conf
Pam
8°
#94

Duke University Libraries
General order n
Conf Pam q#94
D99060910Y

no. 2
~~no. 2~~

[Handwritten scribbles]

Written on piece 150 (no. 2)

GENERAL ORDER NO. 2.

HEADQ'S 2D GRAND DIV. ARMY MISS. VALLEY }
Jackson, Tenn., March 5, 1862. }

I. All troops coming within the limits of this Division from Louisiana and Mississippi will rendezvous at Grand Junction, Tennessee; and those from Alabama, at Corinth, Miss; and the new levies from Tennessee will rendezvous at Henderson and Bethel Stations, on the Mobile & Ohio Railroad.

II. Lee's and Browder's Regiments Tennessee Volunteers, and stragglers and unattached men will proceed from Henderson Station to Corinth, and report to Brigadier General Ruggles. The 7th Regiment Mississippi Volunteers will proceed from Jackson to Henderson.

III. Chiefs of Staff will see that the necessary supplies and transportation are furnished, to effect these movements.

IV. Railroads within the limits of this Command, being absolutely necessary for Military purposes at this time, are, to the extent necessary, placed under the control of the Quarter Masters Department.

To suppress disorders, arrest all persons travelling without proper authority, and prevent undue interference by unauthorized persons on the Memphis and Charleston and Mobile and Ohio Railroads, Brig. Gen'l. Ruggles will make the necessary details from his command to send a Guard of one Commissioned officer and five men with each passenger train on these roads.

V. The sale or supplying in any manner, of intoxicating liquors within five miles of any station occupied by troops, or within one mile of any public highway used for military purposes, except for medicinal purposes, on the written prescription of a regular physician, is prohibited. All grogshops and drinking saloons within such limits will be closed, and the supplies packed, subject to military inspection. Any violation of this order will be followed by prompt arrest of the offender and destruction of all his stores of liquor.

VI. Martial law is declared at the city of Memphis. A firm and discreet officer of proper qualifications, will be detailed by Brig. Gen. Ruggles, to assume the duties of Provost Marshall at that place, who will publish his orders, and call on the commanding officer at that city for the necessary guards to enforce them.

VII. The Prisoners of War at Memphis will be transferred to Mobile under a guard of fifty men, to be detailed by Brig. Gen. Ruggles from his command at Corinth. The commanding officer at Mobile will forward them under a proper guard to Tuscaloosa, Ala., for confinement.

By command of

MAJ. GEN. BRAGG.

By H. W. WALTER,

Act. Ast. Adj. Gen.

Page
94
102

GENERAL ORDER NO. 1

HERBERT H. HARRIS, JR., Major, U.S. Army
The Adjutant General's Office, Fort Belvoir, Colorado

Approved (H)

I. The Adjutant General's Office is the principal office of the Adjutant General's Department, and is the central office for the collection, dissemination, and maintenance of personnel records of the Adjutant General's Department.

II. The Adjutant General's Office shall be organized as follows:

1. The Adjutant General's Office shall be divided into the following sections:
  - a. Personnel Section
  - b. Records Section
  - c. Correspondence Section
  - d. Inspection Section
  - e. Training Section
  - f. Administration Section
2. The Personnel Section shall be responsible for the collection, dissemination, and maintenance of personnel records of the Adjutant General's Department.
3. The Records Section shall be responsible for the collection, dissemination, and maintenance of personnel records of the Adjutant General's Department.
4. The Correspondence Section shall be responsible for the collection, dissemination, and maintenance of personnel records of the Adjutant General's Department.
5. The Inspection Section shall be responsible for the collection, dissemination, and maintenance of personnel records of the Adjutant General's Department.
6. The Training Section shall be responsible for the collection, dissemination, and maintenance of personnel records of the Adjutant General's Department.
7. The Administration Section shall be responsible for the collection, dissemination, and maintenance of personnel records of the Adjutant General's Department.

III. The Adjutant General's Office shall be organized as follows:

1. The Adjutant General's Office shall be divided into the following sections:
  - a. Personnel Section
  - b. Records Section
  - c. Correspondence Section
  - d. Inspection Section
  - e. Training Section
  - f. Administration Section
2. The Personnel Section shall be responsible for the collection, dissemination, and maintenance of personnel records of the Adjutant General's Department.
3. The Records Section shall be responsible for the collection, dissemination, and maintenance of personnel records of the Adjutant General's Department.
4. The Correspondence Section shall be responsible for the collection, dissemination, and maintenance of personnel records of the Adjutant General's Department.
5. The Inspection Section shall be responsible for the collection, dissemination, and maintenance of personnel records of the Adjutant General's Department.
6. The Training Section shall be responsible for the collection, dissemination, and maintenance of personnel records of the Adjutant General's Department.
7. The Administration Section shall be responsible for the collection, dissemination, and maintenance of personnel records of the Adjutant General's Department.

Hollinger Corp.
pH 8.5